

Selection Criteria for master's Scholarships

Criteria Description Score

Topic Justification of relevance and originality	Up to 10 points
Adequacy of the project to the research line Links between the problematic and the research line	Up to 10 points
Theoretical framework of reference Situation within existing research, with bibliographic comments	Up to 25 points
Objective General and specific objectives; theoretical and practical; must be feasible	Up to 15 points
Methodological procedures Explanation and pertinence of the methods and techniques to be used	Up to 20 points
Dissertation summary Project outline in parts, chapters, topics	Up to 5 points
Bibliography General and specific relevance; correct formal presentation (According to Norms of the Brazilian Association of Technical Norms - ABNT)	Up to 5 points
Schedule of activities Feasibility of time and costs, with details about the research process	Up to 5 points
Writing Wording Evaluate text for correctness, clarity, fluency, vocabulary mastery and conceptual mastery	Up to 5 points

The points obtained in each item are added, and then divided by 10 (ten), which will result in the candidate's average. According to candidate's classification and the number of scholarships sent to the School, the candidates will be selected.

Selection Criteria for doctorate scholarships

Criteria Description Score

Topic Justification of relevance and originality	Up to 10 points
Adequacy of the project to the research line Links between the problematic and the research line	Up to 10 points
Theoretical framework of reference Situation within existing research, with bibliographic comments	Up to 20 points
Hypotheses Conceptions about the problem to be tested	Up to 10 points
Objective General and specific objectives; theoretical and practical; must be feasible	Up to 10 points
Methodological procedures Explanation and pertinence of the methods and techniques to be used	Up to 20 points
Dissertation summary Project outline in parts, chapters, topics	Up to 5 points
Bibliography General and specific relevance; correct formal presentation (According to Norms of the Brazilian Association of Technical Norms - ABNT)	Up to 5 points
Schedule of activities Feasibility of time and costs, with details about the research process	Up to 5 points
Writing Wording Evaluate text for correctness, clarity, fluency, vocabulary mastery and conceptual mastery	Up to 5 points

The points obtained in each item are added, and then divided by 10 (ten), which will result in the candidate's average. According to candidate's classification and the number of scholarships sent to the School, the candidates will be selected.