

Postgraduate Program in Communication Sciences

Qualification Report Standards

The Qualification Report must meet the following standards, in accordance with the PPGCOM Regulation

PART I

Activities performed during the course

Student's personal data;

Academic transcript;

School Records: courses taken: summary, papers, dissertation grade;

Student production: publications, congresses and other scientific, academic or artistic activities, carried out by the student throughout the course)

PART II

Dissertation/thesis

Title (even if temporary);

Research object: justification, objectives;

- bibliographic research: construction of the theoretical framework of reference, hypotheses;
- methodology: sampling, research instruments;
- difficulties found;
- how the candidate intends to continue;
- bibliographic references (that were used in the paper);

Research plan

schedule until the conclusion of the dissertation/thesis. (See PPGCOM Regulation)